Resurrection Today

Today we celebrate the octave of Easter which reminds us that for eight days now we have celebrated the great occasion of Jesus' resurrection. The readings throughout the Easter Season tend to have a familiar theme, so much so that it almost appears repetitious, and they focus on a single moment that happened over 2000 years ago. One of the reasons for that is to help us shift our understanding to see that Easter is not simply a onetime event. Easter is an ongoing revelation that happens within the church every day.

The full meaning of the resurrection does not stop with the empty tomb; rather the resurrection leads us to an entirely new way of living. One that shows us that peace, forgiveness, believing and love can and should be expressed within the community and fidelity to our Baptismal promises. We are shown a new way of life within the community which is predominately relational in nature. We hear from Acts today as to how we should live out our commitment to Christ through service and love to one another, in other words living a life of justice for all.

This new order of life through resurrection gives us an opportunity to overcome our own fears and doubts in life through the "peace" Jesus brings to our world. This peace leads us directly to God's love. In our second reading John is telling us that God is love and wherever love is lived and shared we find God. For John this love is found in our belief in Jesus. When we find this kind of love it becomes the very essence of all of our choices in life. No matter what we do or think, no matter how we relate to one another, if we live in this love we become the presence of the risen Lord to the people in our world. By living lives through basic human compassion we are living the love that Jesus made real for us. It is in the caring and tending to the basic needs of the individuals in our community that we live the resurrection of Jesus.

Along with the examples we find of the early Christian community by living in love with compassion and mercy, we also can see the reality of human doubt and failure. In the Gospel for this week we find that Thomas is the one who doubts. In spite of all the things that he saw and experienced, he still had doubt. Jesus tells us that we are blessed because we believe and have never seen. We live our lives out of the love of Jesus trusting in that divine goodness. By sharing the gifts we have received we show our belief in spite of our own doubts. There will always be times in life where we will want to know facts before we believe, but the reality that lies beneath our doubts is still rooted in the love that the resurrected Jesus brings to us.

This great season of resurrection challenges each one of us to live as Jesus did. Through the example of Jesus we too are to surrender ourselves to God's will, and in so doing we will be surprised by the new life to which God will raise us. The resurrection took place 2000 years ago in a dark tomb, but the resurrection is still very much alive and active in every baptized man and woman who live the command of love and follows the law of Christ's peace.

With Deepest Sympathy — Condolences are extended to the families of MINNIE PASCARALLA AND TERRY SHIPLEY. May God grant them eternal rest, and comfort to their families. We commend their souls to rest in the peace of Christ.

Attendance at Easter Services

I want to thank all of our parishioners as well as guests who attended our services over the Triduum and Easter. I know that these are scary times and we are all trying to be extra careful, but I am grateful to all of you who came to Church this Easter, and hopefully it won't be too long until we get back to where we were before this Pandemic started. Our liturgies were made especially beautiful because of your presence. May the Risen Lord bring peace to all of you!

Eastertide

With the Second Sunday in Easter we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. It is also the beginning of Eastertide, a reminder that the empty tomb is not the end of the story, but rather the beginning story of hope. This Paschal season of 50 days celebrates the Resurrection of Christ and leads to Pentecost, May 23 this year.

NCYC

The National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) invites young people in grades 9-12 to encounter Christ, experience church and be empowered for discipleship. NCYC 2021, with the theme "Ablaze," will take place in Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 17-20. The diocesan contingent will depart Nov. 17. To register, contact Scott Martin.

'Unbound' conference scheduled April 17

"Unbound: Rising Into Freedom in Christ," a conference presented by Father Boniface Hicks, OSB, is scheduled for Saturday, April 17 from 8:15 a.m. to 4 p.m. at St. John the Baptist de La Salle Parish, 497 Athena Drive, Delmont. There will be virtual and in-person attendance. Unbound is a simple and gentle approach that will teach you how to claim the freedom that Jesus promised in the Gospels, to discover God's purpose for your life and to be free of fear, anxiety, sadness and emotional wounds. Those interested in participating can register at www.unboundpghbg.ticketbud.com/conferenceapril17 or by calling Kim Hutchins at 412-817-5465.

Virtual talk by author/history professor

The Sisters of Charity of Seton Hill will present author/history professor Catherine O'Donnell on Saturday, April 17 at 7 p.m. This free virtual event is part of the Sister Mary Schmidt, SC, Lecture Series. O'Donnell's presentation is called "We Cannot Quarantine Compassion." O'Donnell is the author of Elizabeth Seton: American Saint and a professor of history at Arizona State University. Drawing on a digital archive of COVID-19 that she and her colleagues created, O'Donnell will reflect on social justice teachings and discuss ways that Saint Elizabeth Seton's life offers a guide for useful and compassionate approaches to help ourselves and others cope with the pandemic. Guests can register for the free event on the Sisters of Charity website, <https://scsh.org>.
